Hear From Our Confirmed Buyers!

By attending this event, I hope to gain visibility with fellow professionals in the industry and keep communications going. I'm looking for new and reliable business partners to provide my clientele with continuous best service. Learning how to manage my business in the new normal will also be an objective for me.

AGD Travel Services, Philippines

Arlet Garcia-Dizon, General Manager

My motivation for participating is to get an updated pulse on the status of key MICE destinations and players in the Asia-Pacific region, and feel a sense of which areas are most ready to resume business. At the same, I would like to explore any novel developments in the MICE market.

Alakart Travel & Incentive House, Turkey

Omer Kartın, Executive Director

Our priority is the return to the Asian Far East direction, hopefully after the pandemic. In fact, we are considering to organise a business industry conference in Shanghai at the end of this year and would be interested to connect with suppliers and partners for this project. By attending this event, I seek to establish as many contacts of suppliers as possible through the Scheduled Meets and Walk-In Meets. From luxury accommodations, unique venues, sightseeing attractions, conference facilities and more.

Alex Art Agencja, Poland

Aleksandra Tomczak, President

I would like to leverage on my event participation to understand how destinations and partners in this region are dealing with the ongoing COVID restrictions. This will provide some insight on planning future operations till full recovery. Am excited to also participate in the mini destination and brand roadshows, as well as the networking sessions.

Blue Sky Travel, Poland

Avinash Konrad Singh, Incentive Travel Manager

We are a MICE agency serving a wide range of corporate clients across Europe. Sourcing for new, fascinating destinations and reliable partners is key for our global MICE business. Having attended this event in-person previously in Bangkok, we now look forward to resuming one-on-one meetings with exhibitors virtually to reconnect with existing partners and sought out new ones.

Congress Consulting Management Group (CCMG), Denmark

Lonni Gulliksen, CEO / Managing Director

I'm in the business of filming tourism and international events and am seeking new destinations to promote in the films. My portfolio includes beauty pageants such as Miss Black Beauty International 2021 in Germany and the finale of Glamour Faces Miss World 2021 contest in Vietnam, as well as Bollywood and Hollywood action films. Am looking forward to IT&CMA and CTW Asia-Pacific sessions that highlight different tourism products and destinations, especially those that provide connections to tourism boards, government bodies and hotels.

Divine Holiday Management Ltd, India

Terence Cardoz, Managing Director

I'm excited about attending the mini road shows, knowledge sessions and the other interactive elements that the event has to offer. My focus is on meeting new suppliers to engage in future travel plan discussions.

Dreams Travel and Tours, Philippines

Rina Miranda, Manager

Attending IT&CM Asia and CTW Asia-Pacific is important for me because even though there are still travel restrictions around the world, it is key that we stay connected with sellers, while planning new strategies and programmes for our clients in anticipation of recovery. The brand showcase would be a great source of new launches and ideas, while the scheduled meets is beneficial to catch up with sellers we already know or meet new ones.

Event & Marketing Solutions LLP, Singapore

We are seeking new suppliers for our annual group travel incentive programmes. Discovering new destinations and premium venues, perhaps through the brand showcase presentations, are among my key priorities to expand our current roster.

Event Planners Pkus NA Inc, USA

Debert Cook, President

My focus is on travel programmes and packages that provide time for families to catch-up and bond, after being separated for an extended time as a result of the pandemic. The hope is to also learn new norms in creating appealing itineraries while harnessing the advancement in digitalisation to create a whole new travel experience. Many players are selling their products ahead for future travel, such as cruises with sailing dates beyond 2022. I would like to explore ideas to better the way we sell future travel as clients have phobia of refunds and booking cancellations.

Feature Tour Sdn Bhd, Malaysia

ET Quah, Director

I'm looking forward to the flexible avenues of connecting and meeting exhibitors. This includes scheduled meets, walk-in meets (unlimited) and via the meeting hub facility. In particular, I seek new suppliers and tech solutions for my business.

HAFACEN, Vietnam

Duc Hoang Nguyen, CEO

In preparation for business recovery, I would like to learn new strategies about marketing MICE travel and tourism from the exhibitors and fellow buyers, and kick-start contract and agreement discussions.

Hesen Almusafer Travel & Tourism Co., Saudi Arabia

Khaled Aldhabab, Tours Manager

IT&CM Asia and CTW Asia-Pacific will be a good source of gaining the latest destination and supplier updates and other MICE industry developments. Scheduled meetings and networking are also a key reason for my participation.

Indoreps Services Dmn, Indonesia

Elgin Agrigento, Director

MICE events in the Asia-Pacific region is a priority for us in the near future. For this reason, I would like to establish connections with potential partners through the event's meetings, and follow-up with site inspections once travel restrictions are relaxed to finally determine the suppliers we wish to sign contracts with. In particular, I'm interested to discover new properties that have opened in the last couple of years.

International Telecom Development, France

Paul Le Rossignol, Managing Director

Am looking forward to meetings with the exhibitors in preparation for the recovery of business events and travel. I also wish to network with other delegates to expand my contacts and potential collaboration opportunities.

Jamtravellers Travel and Tours, Philippines

Josielyn B. Pambo, Owner

My focus is on engaging potential partners who offer tours and activities, such as DMCs, as well as learning more about the industry's recovery plans and outlook. Am also interested to network and establish new business partnerships through the networking conversations and meeting facilities.

KKday, Singapore

Melvin Ng, Director of Commercial Strategy

kkday

IT&CM Asia and CTW Asia-Pacific 2021 is one of the big, must-attend MICE events I am excited about. I am looking forward to all the exciting updates shared by all exhibitors from different parts of the world. I am grateful to have this opportunity to widen our industry network, meet old travel friends and gain new ones. I am also eager to join the knowledge sessions and other programme segments. I look forward to this event being a success.

Laudencia's Business Center, Philippines

Ana Lyn Quiambao, General Manager

I'm always looking forward to attending this event as it is well-rounded in helping me prepare for business recovery through opportunities of sourcing for new partners. I also hope to be inspired by new ideas and approaches for greater operational effectiveness and efficiency through the knowledge sessions and networking conversations with other delegates.

Loushe Travel and Tours, Philippines

Shella Castro, President

As I manage global travel, I'm ready to reconnect and meet with air and hotel suppliers in long-haul destinations including North America, as well as domestic players in India. My objectives for attending include learning best practices from industry peers and suppliers, and better understand when revival of in-person events is expected. Thus, the knowledge sessions, buyer procurement showcase and networking sessions are my anticipated highlights.

Lowe's India

Tanvi Mazmudar, Global Travel Leader

I am seeking new luxury hotels and spa resorts for my incentive clients, with an aim to also expand my offerings for MICE, adventure, and luxury travel requirements. The new 3D mode virtual exhibition looks interesting and I can't wait to experience it.

Lufthansa City Center Almaty Business Travel, Poland

Andrzej Babijew, Owner

In addition to building business partnerships with exhibitors and sharing my client's requirements for contracting and proposals, it would be interesting to discover the latest innovations and programmes that also highlight travel safety measures. I believe that attending IT&CM Asia and CTW Asia-Pacific is the best industry opportunity for MICE buyers and exhibitors to generate future business deals through a successful networking.

MAVP Travel & Tours / UTAOA, Philippines

Melody Palomares, President / Founder

Am eager to experience this year's new 3D mode virtual exhibition as well as the flexible meetings that allow connections through Scheduled Meets, unlimited Walk-In Meets with Exhibitors and through the platform's Meeting Hub. Would also like to see what brands and buyers have in store through the presentation showcases. I hope to make more connections, strengthen my network and establish collaboration with industry professionals in Asia and Europe.

Mazi Travel & Events, Greece

Sylia Maragou, Travel Consultant

I always look forward to attending an IT&CMA and CTW Asia-Pacific event to network and learn alongside peers and industry experts, as well as seek valuable access to resources, connections and knowledge. Staying updated with supplier initiatives and developments is also crucial in preparing for business recovery. The year's virtual event programme looks exciting and am eager to participate throughout as my experience has constantly been positive with the show.

Mileage Adventures Vacation Planner Travel & Tours, Philippines

Leonora Alarcio, General Manager

I would like to leverage on IT&CM Asia and CTW Asia-Pacific to improve my portfolio of suppliers as well as get a sense of opportunities for growth and new markets. In addition, I hope to gain the latest industry developments, statistics, trends and forecasts, get an insight on technological advancements and ideas for sustainability.

Mway Pvt Ltd, Sri Lanka

Mohamed Masakeen Mohamed Mueen, CEO

IT&CM Asia and CTW Asia-Pacific is always one of my most awaited events, even virtually as the organisation is one of the best. Importantly, attending the event allows me to stay informed and find inspiration to adapt to the new normal.

Navigatio Travel and Tours, Philippines

Michelle Reyes-Mactal, Operations Manager

Sourcing for new suppliers, products and services, and learning about the outlook of post-pandemic travel through the knowledge sessions will be my focus at the event.

Overseas Voyages Pvt Ltd, Sri Lanka

Krishnagoby Thangavelu, Director

Scheduled Meetings are my priority for this year's show as I want to start re-looking at hotel contracts and get updates from key suppliers including hotels and destination boards. Connecting and networking with fellow industry professionals will also be one of the highlights for me.

Pacific Link Travel & Tours Limited, Hong Kong SAR

Jacob Ng, General Manager

As part of our development of new products and marketing strategies to regular and new clients, I would like to meet and engage with the destinations and hotel / attraction suppliers being featured in the exhibition and mini roadshows. I hope to also learn from the knowledge and brand presentation sessions about the latest perspectives on business recovery as well as handling clients in the new normal.

Perico Travel Services, Philippines

Genaro R. Perico Jr, General Manager

Am on the look-out for convention centres, hotels and attractions to get an understanding of how the offerings have improvised post-COVID. Through the meetings, brand and buyer procurement showcase as well as mini-roadshows, I hope to re-establish my contacts with key position holders and learn what has changed in the last 2 years.

Plenary Holidays, India

Pranav Bansal, Director

Our priority at the event is to resume our contract negotiations with exhibiting suppliers. I hope to reconnect existing relationships and seek new ones, especially with DMCs. My most anticipated event segment is the mini-roadshows and brand presentations by destinations and other suppliers.

Prime Link Travels, India

Rajeev Rawat, Director

I enjoy attending the virtual editions of IT&CM Asia and CTW Asia-Pacific as each of its programme segments is unique with a different approach and objective. The event is beneficial to my learning and industry engagement while having fun. My biggest takeaway from attending would be to stay better prepared for recovery by understanding the latest developments taking place. I'll be listening to different perspective from travel experts and leaders to be more empowered in this situation.

RONQUILLO Travel and Tours, Philippines

Bernadette Ronquillo-Tempongko, Owner

My interest for this event includes contracting new suppliers for itineraries and experiences that fit my client profile. Am eager to explore the destinations exhibiting, and learn more about hybrid meetings and sustainability.

Sedunia Travel Services Sdn Bhd, Malaysia

Gary Oh, Business Development Manager

Am in search of good DMCs, land operators and other quality MICE products and services across Asia-Pacific. In particular, we want to collaborate with partners with know-how in handling niche markets and providing special travel experiences.

Skyzone Tours & Travel Sdn Bhd, Malaysia

Kimberly Khoo, General Manager

Networking and engaging trade partners in conversation will be my priority at this event.

Smart Vision International (SVI), Australia

Ghassan Daban, Managing Director

Travel business has already restarted for us and we are in search of partners who can support us. We presently have existing clients with requirements for overseas business trips as well as leisure family holidays such as via the vaccine programmes in the USA. The meetings with exhibitors, brand showcase presentations and mini-roadshows are among my event highlights.

Smile Holiday, Indonesia

Bambang Hartono, Chief Executive Officer

IT&CM Asia and CTW Asia-Pacific's knowledge sessions, brand showcase and mini roadshows are my most looked forward highlights. My destination focus based on client demand includes Hong Kong, Taiwan, Thailand, China, Japan, South Korea, Vietnam, Malaysia and Singapore.

Stelera Tours and Travel Services, Philippines

Jackie Lou Relleve, Travel Manager

I like that the event introduced bonus meeting slots that allow me to maximise my time with exhibitors. In particular, I would like to meet DMCs. The mini roadshows are also appealing. By participating, I hope to be inspired with new ideas for the post-pandemic era of travel, stay updated on destinations and products, and expand my networks and insights.

SUN Educational Travel, Indonesia

Santi Aparamita, Director

The virtual meetings and mini destination roadshows are my most anticipated aspects of the event as my priority is to meet with as many different exhibitors and suppliers to discuss future business and collaboration opportunities. Learning more about the status of their developments and changes will enable us to better promote and assure our clients to achieve travel recovery.

Ticketlandia Travel And Tours, Philippines

Medeliane Halili, General Manager

This is the leading MICE show in the region with plenty of destinations and suppliers from across South East Asia, which form a substantial part of what we sell to our clients in Dubai, UAE. We have already received some enquiries for groups in 2022 and I look forward to meeting exhibitors and establishing partnerships to fulfil this.

Travel Counsellors LLC, United Arab Emirates

Zaim Muhammad, Joint Business Partner

Experiential tourism is likely to be a key theme for the industry going forward. I hope to gain inspiration and ideas from the event's knowledge sessions, brand presentations as well as participating suppliers through the exhibition and meetings to achieve this. Re-starting sourcing and contracting is also a priority for me at this time.

Travel Instagram, India

Sudhir Tuli, Director

Asia-Pacific destinations in my radar include Thailand, Malaysia, Indonesia, India and Singapore. I aim to meet suppliers and partners from these destinations and more, who can collaborate with us to deliver quality itineraries and services for our clients.

Travelers Add Tours, Bangladesh

Mintu Ratna, ECO

I value this opportunity to network with top-level travel executives and decision makers from travel brands across the world and to learn trends, best practices and much more from the best in the business. Am also looking forward to explore the brands and latest products on showcase, and seek win-win business.

TRAVELWON Tours, India

Rajesh Kumar Saran, Director

I'm looking forward to the brand and buyer presentations as well as hosted live sessions at the virtual event. Meeting new suppliers, especially hotels, to learn how they have adapted their services and offerings for post-Covid business is one of my priorities.

T.T.C.2 sro, Czech Republic

Mauro Lazzari, Business Development Manager

We serve corporate and luxury clients and hope to better anticipate the kind of changes in the new normal in order to continue fulfilling their needs. One of our sourcing priorities is for entertainment, team building and activities such as spa for luxury and MICE itineraries.

Vasudha Travels Pvt Ltd, India

Sanjiv Poddar, Chief Executive Officer

Am eager to meet new exhibitors and partners through the one-on-one scheduled business meets, and stay up to date.
